Organizational Code of Conduct –

Awareness, Respect, Behaving, Responsible and safeguarding

In all contexts of intervention, NESAF staffs, board members, consultants and other collaborators (volunteers or partners, for example) are committed to treating the concerned parties, the beneficiaries of the actions, and the communities with respect and dignity.

The code sets forth the expected behaviors and practices constituting the organisation's minimum standards as well as actions to be avoided to ensure relations with the beneficiaries or between members of NESAF's staff are respectful of the ethics developed by the organisation via its policies.

The Code, which must be signed personally by all the people concerned, applies to anyone working on behalf of NESAF or as part of a program/project or an action conducted with NESAF. In every context, regardless of the emergency of the situation, as a member of NESAF staff, board member or as a collaborator,

I commit to respect the following:

Relations: I will always make sure that beneficiaries (including children), staff and partners are treated with respect, dignity and equality regardless of their age, sex, physical condition, impairment, language, religion, opinion, nationality, ethnic or social origin, status, class, caste, sexual orientation, or any other personal characteristics. I do not participate in or encourage corrupt or fraudulent actions that harm the beneficiaries and/or the organization. I do not demand or accept any commission, consideration, or gift for my decisions or actions.

Elimination of sexual abuse and exploitation: I will never engage in any form of sexual relations with anyone under 18 years old, I do not engage in any type of sexual relationship or favour in exchange for money, a gift of any kind, work, or humanitarian aid, even if it is offered or expected by the persons involved. Under no circumstances will I sexually exploit any NESAF's beneficiary or staff member.

Working environment: I will always treat beneficiaries, especially children and person with disabilities, in an equitable and fair way, never discriminating against them for example by favouritism or by excluding others. I will always show respect to all categories of employees, partner's staff, community volunteers or beneficiaries.

Fight against fraud and corruption: I protect the material and financial resources of the organization against any form of waste, loss, theft or misappropriation and do not demand or accept commissions, no any compensation or gifts for my decisions or actions

I perform my duties without abusing the authority or responsibilities entrusted to me in order to obtain personal gain.

Communication: For any photo taken or video made, I ask for prior authorization from the person concerned for their legal representative (minor or under guardianship). I do understand that prior authorization cannot be obtained under pressure or in exchange for an individual service. When a photo is taken or a video is made, with the appropriate prior authorization, I always ensure that the person is not depicted in a degrading or sexually suggestive way.

Reporting: I never deliberately make false accusations or spread false rumours about a colleague, or any other person, in regard to non-compliance with this code of conduct agree to cooperate, confidentially and impartially, with internal investigations as determined by my organization.

Your employment and/or engagement with NESAF are conditional on you signing and therefore agreeing to NESAF's Organizational Code of Conduct and its contents.
